

Senator Ronnie Chance

Senate District 16

Senator Ronnie Chance, a Republican, was first elected to the state Senate from Georgia's 16th District in 2004. He represents Lamar, Pike and parts of Fayette, Monroe and Spalding counties. He serves as chairman of the Government Oversight Committee, secretary of the Finance Committee and serves as a member of the Higher Education and Economic Development committees and Georgia's Workforce Investment Board. In 2006, he was appointed Senate Floor Leader by Governor Sonny Perdue.

Sen. Chance is active in the community, serving on the boards of the Flint River Council of the Boy Scouts of America, the Georgia State University Alumni Association, the Cochran Mill Nature Center and the Fayette County Chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Sen. Chance is a graduate of Georgia State University's Robinson College of Business where he earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in marketing. He is married to the former Cressida Stevens of Gloucestershire, England. The Chances have two daughters, Ellia and Eva, and are members of Peachtree City United Methodist Church. The family currently resides in Tyrone.